

31st Annual Lincoln Colloquium

LINCOLN BOYHOOD NATIONAL MEMORIAL

October 7-8, 2016 Lincoln City, Indiana

Lincoln in Public Memory

No figure in American history is more a part of the public memory than Abraham Lincoln. He has become, in fact, a part of the collective consciousness of America. He is universally recognized as one of the most significant persons in our country's history. Memorials of all types – from the Lincoln Memorial in Washington DC to countless statues in town squares – have been created and erected to honor the memory of this man and his accomplishments. In fact, he is so deeply ingrained in our national consciousness that his image can be found practically everywhere – in sculptures, paintings, posters, dolls, decorative items and on screen, in film and television productions. Join us as we examine the myriad of ways in which Abraham Lincoln is, and has been, remembered.

Speakers:

Barry Schwartz, author of Abraham Lincoln in the Post-Heroic Era

Richard Fox, author of Lincoln's Body: A Cultural History

Edward T. Linenthal author of Preserving History: The Struggle to Create America's Holocaust Museum
